

This map displays a comprehensive network of roads and railroads across Central Europe. Major cities and towns are labeled in black text, including Berlin, Hamburg, Frankfurt, Cologne, and Prague. The map also shows geographical features such as rivers, lakes, and coastlines. A grid of latitude and longitude lines is overlaid on the map, with latitude lines labeled on the left and right edges, and longitude lines labeled at the top and bottom edges. The map is color-coded to show different regions and terrain types, with green representing lowlands and brown representing higher elevations. The map is titled 'GERMANY' in large letters across the top and 'POLAND' in large letters across the right side.